

Donations Fall 2012

- Rhea Lewis Collection: Donated a collection of Newspaper articles on the Glen Wanlass Service Station and on Stan Wanlass-Lehi Artist. She also donated numerous early Lehi resident stories and photographs. She also included photographs of the Lehi Hospital including a photograph of the first dishwasher in the hospital from the 1950's.
- Lynette Lewis Harris donated a program from the rededication of the Lehi Tabernacle cornerstone at a Lehi Stake Youth Conference 1991. She also donated photo of a Telegraph Inspection crew train from 1920.
- Melva Anderson donated a transposed copy of an original document on onion paper and printed it in book form. "A Religious History Of Lehi"
- Josephene Chatfield donated the book "Our Royle and McCallister Heritage Book" Story of James Freeman Royle Family.
- John Haws donated 4 Lehi High School yearbooks, several National Guard photos, miniature parade photos, old fence photos, Olympic photos of torch run through Lehi, Provo Temple Dedication program and tickets, Mount Timpanogas groundbreaking program, youth conference memorabilia, newspaper articles from the 1970's on the City council, Kohler Food Store photographs, Haws Floral photographs, and Lehi Birthday celebration programs. He also donated some poetry by different people in Lehi.
- An anonymous collection of photographs were donated to the Archives in Dimple Mellor's name.
- Lora Hardman donated a 1982 History of the Lehi 7th Ward book.
- John Haws donated a 1892 Life of John Taylor by B.H. Roberts and a Utah Journey: History of Utah Textbook.
- Judy Hansen donated a collection of 40 Photos of the Old Lehi Hospital being torn down. She has given rights to the pictures to use, but must be credited.
- Kelton Kestler Eagle Project. Kelton documented the new transportation systems in Lehi including Pioneer Crossing, upgrades on Main Street and other transportation project. Kelton has captured the system with a collection of over a hundred photographs with description pages. The photographs were place in a nice leather photo album. They also provided hard copies and digital copies of the photos. It is a great collection.